

HOMEMAKERS FORUM' SLATED FOR JAN. 3

"Homemakers Forum" is the title of a full afternoon of ideas for the housewives of Torrance, to be held on January 30 from 1:30 to 3 p.m. at the Civic Auditorium, 1349 El Prado.

The program, co-sponsored by the Torrance Recreation Department and the Southern California Gas Company, will cover many interesting and time-saving tips for the busy homemaker.

The following activities are planned by the business establishments of Torrance. Spring fashion show sponsored by Moore's Dress Shop; color schemes in the home by Mary's Color Bar; and a special food program by Home Economist Margo McClosky of the Southern California Gas Company.

All who attend are asked to donate 50c. This money will be used by the Recreation leaders in Torrance for special events such as parties on the playground.

Tickets are available at the Torrance Recreation Department, 3031 Torrance Blvd., or those interested may call FA. 8-4108 for reservations or information. Reservations must be made in advance.

Rev. Brannigan Addresses Meeting of Mother's Club

The second meeting of the Mothers' Club of the Parent-Faculty organization at Bishop Montgomery high school featured an address by Rev. Finton Brannigan, SJ, pastor of St. Andrew's Catholic church in El Segundo.

This scholarly, review of Catholic church history down through the centuries was interspersed with colorful anecdotes of Father Brannigan's career as a Jesuit missionary in Yugoslavia, India and China.

Mrs. Joseph Moore, chairman, of Manhattan Beach, presided at the meeting held at the library of the new high school at 5430 Torrance Blvd. Reports were given by committee chairmen Mrs. John J. Porizek of Lawndale, education; Mrs. Roger Le Pont of Lomita, library; Mrs. Frederick Koch of Torrance, health; Mrs. Joseph Frisino of Lomita, social; Mrs. Howard M. Schott of Torrance, publicity; and Mrs. Gregory Gordon of Torrance, ways and means.

Mrs. Gordon's report included plans for the group's participation in the television program "It Could Be You" on Friday, February 14.

An evening party for the parents, who represent thirteen parishes in this area, is planned for later this month, giving the group an opportunity for conviviality.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting. The hostesses were Mrs. John J. Porizek and Mrs. Frederick Koch.

Girl Scout Troop 1435

By Mrs. Opal Simon

Girl Scout Troop 1435, sponsored by the Walteria PTA, meets at the Walteria Scout house, located at the south end of Madison St., each Tuesday afternoon under the direction of Leader Mrs. Lillian Doage, and co-leader Mrs. Joan Hardcastle.

A summary of the December activities of the Troop are as follows: The December 3 meeting was spent working on proficiency badges toward First Class rank.

On December 10, the girls made surprise Christmas gifts for their mothers.

The Troop entertained the mothers at the December 17 meeting with each Patrol presenting a skit of their own origination. The hall was gaily decorated with red and green streamers and a glittering Christmas tree.

After the entertainment the girls exchanged gifts that had been placed beneath the tree.

Refreshments were served and the regular meeting was adjourned until after the holidays.

The Christmas party took place at the Scout Hall on December 14 with each girl bringing a friend. It was a time of gaiety, smiling faces, pretty dresses and special manners. The children danced and played games in an atmosphere of a glowing fireplace and beautifully decorated hall.

Refreshments were served and the breaking of the Mexican Pinata was the climax of the affair.

Fern Greenwood PTA

By Mrs. R. L. Bundy

Future ways and means projects were discussed at the Executive board meeting of the Fern Greenwood PTA held last week at the home of Mrs. E. E. Conry, 2530 Lessorman. Mrs. Bert Lynn, ways and means chairman, named a committee, Mrs. P. Shinoda, Mrs. J. E. Gist, and Mrs. W. D. Marleau, to assist in evaluating various plans.

Mrs. J. L. Adams, welfare chairman, reported the gifts of canned goods brought to school by the children at Christmas, were used to fill baskets for the needy in this area.

Mrs. Art Campbell, president, announced the District Mid-winter conference to be held January 30 in Montebello. She urged all to attend that could.

The next association meeting will be held January 16, at 7:30 p.m., in the cafeteria. The topic is "Far Away Places," and will feature talks by Miss Madia Basmadjian, an America Field Service Exchange student from Greece, and Miss Mary Sippel, Torrance High student who studied last year in Finland.

Juvenile Delinquency Is EVERYBODY'S PROBLEM

We hope that this page will serve as an "OPEN FORUM" for the people of our communities. We are inviting you to write letters which will be published on this page. The alarming rise in juvenile delinquency can be stemmed. So let us talk it over through the columns of this paper. Just sit down and write a letter. What is your idea? We all love these youngsters. What can we do to help straighten them out before they become involved.

This is your "OPEN FORUM"

The opinions expressed in the letter and editorials are not necessarily the opinion of the Torrance Press nor of the sponsors who have made this page possible.

An Open Letter from the Director of the FBI: Warning to U. S. Teen-Agers

By J. EDGAR HOOVER

I've spent 40 years, my whole career, dealing with the seamy side of life—robbery, kidnaping, gangsterism and murder. It is possible that the nation's youngsters think of me, when they think of me at all
